THE CHIEFTAIN
KIOWA HIGH SCHOOL
KIOWA, KANSAS

1973

COMPILED BY:
THE CHIEFTAIN YEARBOOK STAFF
MARY HYDE, EDITOR

The past is but the beginning of a beginning, and all that is and has been is but the twilight of the dawn.

THE DISCOVERY OF THE FUTURE
Herbert George Wells
(1855-1946)

Great is the moment of beginning . . .

For the students of Kiowa High School, the days of the 1972-73 school year harbor many fond memories. Many of the memories are simple, uncomplicated, and not long remembered.

The decision of the school board to consolidate the Kiowa and Hardtner schools moved the students at Kiowa to review the simple moments of Kiowa High School. Realizing that this would be the final year for the existence of our school, the simple memories became the most important to the students.

As we survey the simple memories, we can discover a universal theme that is present in each one. In each vivid event, we realize a sense of enjoyment at the beginning of the event. But as we conclude the event, we recognize a greater joy. The joy of accomplishment, a new experience, a simple pleasure of life, or gained knowledge.

The most memorable moments of our school will be those of its last year. The ending of KHS has led the students to search for the true meaning of the existence of Kiowa High School. In searching for the answers, the students have grown and matured, formed opinions, and realized a little better the true definition of sacrifice.

Great is the moment of beginning, but greater the moment of ending.

... but greater
the moment of ending

When things are packed
And you are ready to leave,
Don't look back,
But forward to the things
That you can achieve.

Sherrill reigns as Miss Kiowa

Miss Sherrill Christensen, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. M. D. Christensen, was chosen by the Kiowa student body to represent Kiowa in the Miss Cinderella Pageant. Other candidates were Miss Sheila Smith and Miss Jan Wright.

Sherrill added the special "Kiowa" touch to the pageant festivities held at Northwestern State College in Alva, Oklahoma. A talent show, parade, and the pageant were the high points of the week. For the talent show Sherrill, accompanied by Miss Kay Stevens, sang "Tapestry" by Carole King.

Kiowa High School is proud of Sherrill's hard work and determination that made us happy to say, "She's from Kiowa!"

Pep Club promotes spirit and enthusiasm

The 54 members of the pep club promoted spirit and enthusiasm which boosted our teams to another outstanding year. The girls decorated the school, wrote on windows of merchants uptown and held several pep rallies in the gym. Other pep rallies included a rally uptown to send off the boys to the regionals in football and a bonfire rally northeast of the park.

October 5 was the date selected for the annual Powder Puff game in which the "black" team was victorious over the "gold." The queen, Craig Brattin, was crowned at half time.

The pep club was also responsible for the homecoming festivities. Dot Scupbach was chosen by the student body to preside over the student body to preside over the October 13 homecoming game and dance.

The officers who led our pep club were Teresa Terhune, president; Cindy Molz, vice-president; Diane Hillman, secretary; Mary Hyde, treasurer; and Dot Scupbach. STUCO representative Miss Fritze was the sponsor for the group.

STUCO suggests school names to the School Board

The Board of Education asked the Student Council to work with them in naming the new school and mascot. After receiving suggestions from students and faculty members, the STUCO selected five names and mascots for the student body to vote on. The STUCO then submitted the results of the vote to the board for their consideration.

Other activities were sponsored by the STUCO. A hat day was held to bring out the school's spirit for our football team when they played in the district playoffs. The group supervised basketball homecoming festivities. They also held a Christmas party in the high school gym during the sixth hour before vacation began.

The officers for STUCO were Rick Sears, president; Fred Gillig, vice-president; and Laurie Terwort, secretary-treasurer. Due to consolidation of schools, the STUCO elections for 1973-74 were postponed until fall.

Speech and debate students attend festivals

During the fall, the debate students attended a tournament at Colewater. Barbara Sanberry and Karen Kimmell, won two out of six while Alan Ott and Norma Terry won four out of six.

The speech students participated in three festivals, league, district, and state. Their ratings were Robert Rieke (poetry interpretation), league I, district I, state II, (informative speaking), district I, state I; Dee Debano (prose interpretation), league I, district I, state II; Mike Ward (dramatic interpretation), league I, district III; Ralora Ward (dramatic interpretation), league III; Kay Stevens (poetry interpretation), league II, district I, state III; Sheil Smith (prose interpretation), league I, district I, state I; Diane Benson (dramatic interpretation), district I, state III.

Newspaper Staff keeps students up to date

Each week a section of THE KIOWA NEWS was set aside for the high school newspaper, the CHIEFTAIN. The newspaper staff, with Laurie Terwort and Barbara Sanberry serving as co-editors, kept the student body informed on past, present and future events of the school year.

Y-Teens collect for Heart Fund

The Kiowa Y-Teens were very active. They sent Care packages for World Fellowship and collected for the Heart Fund for their national project. For their group project, they brought small items or money for the Achenbach Nursing Home.

The annual Christmas party for the kindergartners was held before vacation. Mrs. Claus came with Santa Claus this year to help with the presents. Also, the Y-Teens sponsored an all-school party for the student body before Easter vacation. The girls brought games, cards, and refreshments for everyone.

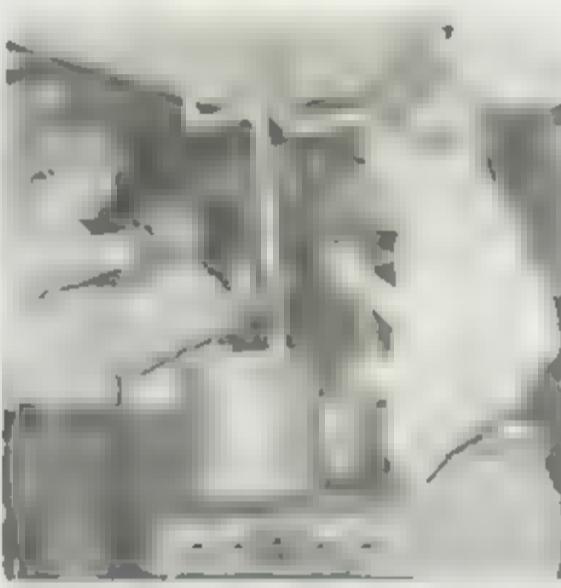

Officers for Y-Teens were Kay Stevens, president; Diane Hillman, vice-president; Karen Kimmell, secretary; Barbara Gillig, treasurer; Pam Johnesee, STUCO representative; and Kim Forester, ICC representative.

Hi-Y travels to Roman Nose

The purpose of Hi-Y is to create, maintain and extend throughout the home, school and community high standards of Christian living.

In March, the Hi-Y boys sponsored a Soup Supper. The delicious meal included chili, home-made chicken noodle soup, pie, and drinks.

Early Saturday morning, May 12, eighteen of the twenty-one members boarded the bus for a weekend outing at Roman Nose. The boys did their own cooking, played golf, and attended a drive-in movie.

Hi-Y officers included Bret Spicer, president; Jesse Soria, vice-president; Kent Harbaugh, secretary; Jim Jacobs, treasurer, Fred Callig and Craig Brattin, Sgt of Arms; Scott Sibley, STUCO representative; and Alan Ott, chaplin.

Top to Bottom: I don't see any golf balls. What are they using the clubs for? Perhaps to chop firewood to do their own cooking? Hi-Y members pose in front of their cabin while they spend the weekend at Roman Nose. Kirk Lieurance and Mike Demaray dip up more chili for Scott Sibley while John Forester serves the Davis family at the Hi-Y soup supper.

Middle: Lee Bonnewell and Fred Gillig hold the barbed wire for Bret Spicer as they demonstrate the art of splicing wire for the FFA sweetheart contestants. Laurie Terwort, Marilyn Rose, and Dot Schupbach congratulate Mary Vogel when she wins the contest. Foundation Award winners are Lee Gonnewell, Ernest Jahay, Mark Mathews, Bret Spicer, Scott Mathews, and Mike Demaray. Bottom: The Kiowa FFA Judging team exhibit trophies and ribbons won at Denver. At the FFA banquet Scott Mathews was given the Star Greenhand Award, Mark Mathews the DeKalb Award, and Fred Gillig the Star Chapter Farmer Award.

FFA-Back Row: F. Gillig, L. Bonnewell, B. Spicer, M. Mathews, K. Harbaugh, J. Soria

FFA wins national contest

The purpose of FFA is to develop agricultural leadership, cooperation, and citizenship. The FFA team from Kiowa represented us well as they won the Denver National Western Judging Contest. The contest consisted of judging eight classes of livestock including three species of cattle, sheep, and swine.

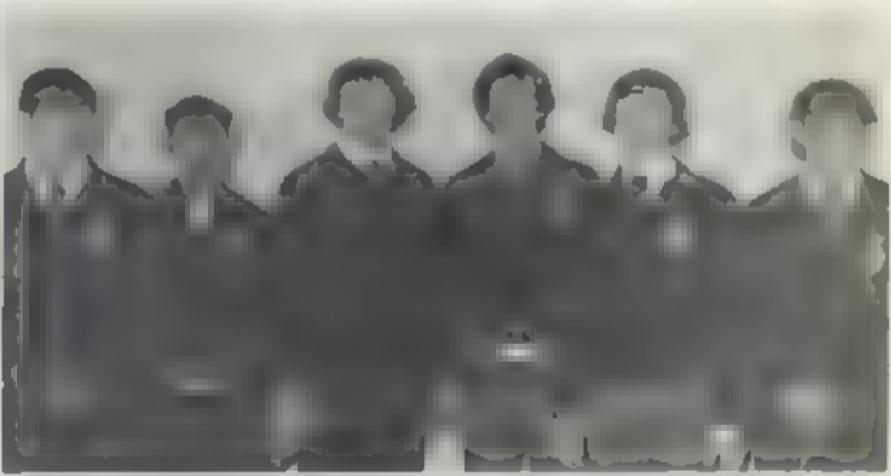

The Kiowas chapter this year was also awarded the Superior Chapter Award for Kansas. This is the highest honor a chapter can receive.

At district the officers received a gold for their leadership. Mark Mathews was awarded the State Farmer Award while Fred Gillig earned the Sentinel office. At the district meet, the Kiowa team won the Reasons honor. The team gained second place at the Kiowa FFA Judging Contest.

To raise money for the chapter, the boys sold gold cotton mums to promote KHS spirit. They also held their annual slave auction after the Powder Puff football game. In April, the group sold rose bushes and planted them for the buyers.

The sweetheart contest was held before the Powder Puff game. Mary Vogel was chosen by the FFA boys to become their "sweetheart." For a trip, the chapter attended the National Finals Rodeo in Oklahoma City.

The chapter was led by Fred Gillig, president; Bret Spicer, vice-president; Mark Mathews, secretary; Alan Ott, treasurer; Jesse Soria, STUCO representative; Kent Harbaugh, sentinel; Lee Bonnewell, reporter. Mr. Lancaster sponsored the group.

FCA hosts carnival

The goal and purpose of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes was: "To confront athletes and coaches, and through them the youth of the nation with the challenge and adventure of following Christ in the fellowship of the Church, and serving Him through our vocations." The only requirement to be a member of FCA is to be an athlete in Kiowa High School.

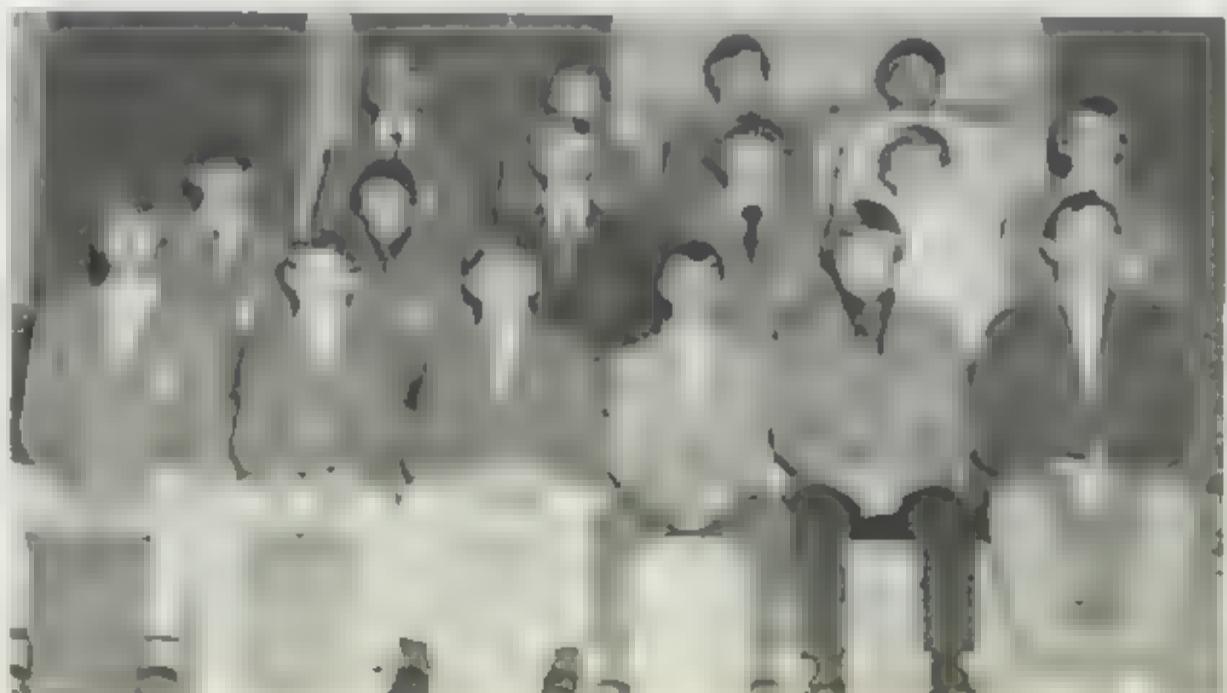

As a money making project the FCA hosted a carnival of games, competition, and prizes. And of course, there was the jail, where many parents and teachers spent much of the evening.

As a service project, the FCA sponsored the Hower Fund Drive. The boys collected money for a memorial fund for Bob Hower, a coach at Southwestern State College in Kansas. Mr. Hower was the father of Phil Hower, a former coach at Kiowa. The funds given to the memorial fund were used to remodel the tennis courts at Southwestern.

The FCA was under the leadership of Craig Brattin, president; Rick Sears, vice-president; Kirk Lieurance, secretary-treasurer; Kent Harbaugh, worship leader; and Keith Tasker, STUCO representative. The FCA was under the supervision of Mr. Wilson and Mr. Taylor.

Annual Staff meets challenges; makes changes

With Mary Hyde as editor and Miss Grigsby as sponsor, the Annual Staff worked in a different manner this year. Some members met each Thursday night to plan and work. Also, the annuals went on sale before the advertising was done. Members of the staff attended meetings at Manhattan and Hutchinson to study techniques of layout, copy, and photography. We wanted to make this annual better than any previous one.

With the consolidation of the district schools, this will be the last year for Kiowa High School. We, the Annual Staff, have tried to point out the things that our high school has accomplished and that we will always remember.

Band tunes up spirit at KHS

The Kiowa High School band played at several pep rallies to boost the KHS spirit to a successful year. The band also did exceptionally well at festivals. It received three I's at MAL Instrumental Music Festival while the other groups that received I's were Woodwind Choir, Clarinet Ensemble, and Brass Ensemble. Soloists' ratings were as follows: I's to Cheryl Davis, Pam Johnesee, and Mike Ward; II's to Kay Stevens, Brenda Wright, and David Wenzel.

Newton was the setting for the state music festival. The band was the only band there that received all three I's plus a I in sight reading. I's were also earned by Percussion Ensemble, Clarinet Ensemble, and soloists Kay Stevens, Pam Johnesee, Mike Ward, and Cheryl Davis. Brenda Wright and David Wenzel received II's.

Tri-State honors were given to Clarinet Ensemble, Pam Johnesee, and Mike Ward who received I's. Kay Stevens and Brenda Wright received II's. While they were at Enid for Tri-State, Kay Stevens, Mike Ward, Pam Johnesee, and Brenda Wright took part in the Tri-State Honor Band.

Other achievements were: Linda Robinson, Pam Johnesee, Mike Ward, and Kay Stevens were selected to play in the District V Honor Band, and Mike Ward was selected to take part in the Lions All-International Band which was held in Miami, Florida during the summer.

Stage band travels to Oklahoma City

The 15 members of the "Twilighters," KHS's stage band, journeyed to Oklahoma City April 15-17. While there, they toured the facilities at WKY and the zoo. In the evening, the group attended the Gaslight Dinner Theatre. The next day, they visited the University of Oklahoma.

To pay for this trip the "Twilighters" played for two Co-op banquets. In addition, they played for the hospital dance with proceeds being used for the cardiac fund.

The year was made complete by the outfits which the group created. They included aqua shirts and blouses with navy blue bell-bottom cuffed pants.

“A Wind between the Houses” Junior — Senior Play

On November 21, the junior and senior classes presented the three-act play, “A Wind between the Houses,” by Maurice J. Hill. The juniors and seniors had tryouts for the cast of ten characters. The students who were not selected as members of the cast served on various committees that did the behind-the-scenes work for the production. Mr. Hinds was the faculty adviser.

The play was presented before a large audience at the grade school gym. It was a most successful production and an exciting experience for the two classes.

"Caught in a Dream"

April 27, 1973 was the date of the Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom which took place at the VIP Club in Alva. The theme, "Caught in a Dream," was carried out by memory books that were red with a silver quarter moon on them. The seniors' class flower, a rose, was stamped across the quarter moon.

A seven and one-half feet tall archway stuffed with green, red and white paper and outlined with small, multi-colored flowers was used as a setting for pictures of each couple. Baskets of flowers were set on the stage, by the head table, and by the archway. A cart with large flowers was off to one side. The tables were covered with white tablecloths. Different colored napkins and candles completed the table decorations.

"Captain Zok" provided the music for the prom which began at 9:00 p.m.

Music, an expression of life

If you take a look at the majority of teen-agers today, you will find that teen-agers thrive on music. Whether they are dancing to it, listening to it, or expressing themselves through music, teen-agers relate to music. Some like hard rock, folk, classical or country while others may like Bach, Beethoven or Brahms.

Many of the students of KHS have the talent to express themselves through singing. For this reason several large vocal groups and ensembles have been formed. The students can try out for Boys Glee, Girls Glee, Choir, Girls Ensemble or Chamber Singers, all under the direction of Roger Noble.

During the 1972-73 school year these groups have been most successful. At the league and at the state vocal music festival the following ratings were received: A Cappella Choir I, I; Girls Glee I, I; Boys Glee II, I; Girls Ensemble I, I; Boys Glee II, I; Girls Ensemble I, I; Dana Shklar I, I, Becky Hedges I, II; Barbara Gillig I, II; Ralora Ward I, II; Mary Hyde I; Melony Williams II; Mike Ward II, II; Sherrill Christensen II; Brenda Wright II; Dee Ann Debano II; Cheryl Smith II.

The soloists and smaller ensembles performed for various social clubs during the year. The entire music department performs two concerts for the community each year.

If you look closely at the Kiowa High School Vocal Music Department, you will find many talented, happy teen-agers expressing themselves through music.

Special services are provided by students

Several of the students of Kiowa High School use their study hall time for various jobs in the school. Students may work in the school library. Under the supervision of Mrs. McGinnies, the young librarians check books in and out and help students find reference materials and books.

Other students may assist Mrs. Sibley in the school office with secretarial work. The students' work involves answering the telephone, picking up telephone slips, and delivering messages.

These students give freely of their energies. Their pay is honor points, which apply toward their honor pins.

Chieftains win league championship; enter

Thirty-three boys reported for the 1972 football season on August 17. The season passed by quickly and Kiowa finished the regular season with an 8-1 record. The only loss was to Medicine Lodge in the last two minutes, 8-14. The 8-1 mark was good enough to qualify the Chieftains for the playoffs. In the district playoffs, the Chieftains fell to Udall by a score of 15-18. This concluded the football season with an 8-2 overall record.

Underclassmen receiving honors were Ron Hill, Honorable Mention Offense and Defense; Fred Gillig, All League Defense, Honorable Mention Offense; Kirk Lieurance, All League Offense, and Jesse Soria, All League Defense.

Dot reigns as football queen

Friday, October 13, was the date set for the football homecoming festivities. During the noon hour, the students cast their ballot for one of three senior girls, who they thought deserved the football crown. The three girls were Dot Schupbach, nominated by the STUCO; Mary Vogel, nominated by the football boys; and Teresa Terhune, nominated by the senior class.

That evening before the Chieftains met the Burton Chargers, the coronation ceremony was held. The junior high school band played selected songs, while the candidates and attendants were escorted onto the field as follows: Belinda Gillig, Tony Archuleta; Pam Swafford, Kent Harbaugh; Cindy Ricke, Kirk Lieurance; Teresa Terhune, Bill Selsor; Dot Schupbach, Rick Schrock; Mary Vogel, Craig Brattin.

As a fanfare was played, Cindy Molz, pep club vice-president, read the name of the 1972 football homecoming queen . . . Miss Dot Schupbach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Schupbach. The crowd cheered as Dot was driven around the field. Dot, with her attendants and the candidates, were seated and they watched the game which ended with a Kiowa victory. After the football game, the Kiowa students and alumni met for a memorable dance honoring Dot

Laurie becomes 1973 basketball homecoming queen

The members of the Student Council joined forces to plan and execute the 1973 basketball homecoming festivities. Friday, January 19 was set as the date for selecting the basketball homecoming queen. The three senior candidates were Laurie Terwort, nominated by the senior class; Jan Wright, nominated by the basketball boys; and Kay Stevens, nominated by the Student Council. On Friday during the noon hour, the student body marked their ballots for one of the girls.

The coronation was held before the A-team game with Sedgwick. The candidates were escorted to the center of the court by the seniors escorts, Mark Mathews, Bill Selsor, and Keith Tasker.

As everyone waited anxiously the name of the 1973 basketball homecoming queen was announced.

Miss Laurie Terwort, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Terwort. The new queen and the other candidates were seated while the Junior high school band entertained the crowd with music.

After Kiowa's 66-43 victory over the Sedgwick Cardinals a dance was held to honor Queen Laurie.

Roundballers enjoy best season in years

Head Coach Jim Wilson points out a potential prospect to his assistants, Rex Taylor and Kenneth McGowan

Chieftain basketball once again moved forward with all three teams posting winning records for the second consecutive year. The combined winning percentage climbed to 712. There were many highlights during the year. The freshmen defeated Chapparal twice and Alva once. The B-team's fine record of 11-5 was an outstanding team effort. The varsity victory over the Alva Goldbugs was eventful. The Chiefs had two outstanding defensive games in which they held opponents to 26 points.

Tourney victories included a second place finish in the freshmen division of the MAL Tournament and a third place finish of the varsity in the MAL Tournament which were the first victories and first trophy that Kiowa has won since we became a member. The Chiefs placed second in the district tourney but received a setback in the first round of the regional. The Chiefs finished fourth in the league race, playing the last six games of the season without their leading scorer, Bill Selsor.

Following are the awards given to the Chieftain players: Most Valuable--Offense, Jack Blevins; Most Valuable--Defense, Jack Blevins; Hustler of the Year, Ron Hill; Most Inspirational, Bret Spicer; Honorary Captain, Mark Mathews; Most Valuable Player for 16 Games, Bill Selsor; First Team All-MAL, Bill Selsor; Honorable Mention All-MAL, Mark Mathews, Bret Spicer, and Jack Blevins.

Girls Sports become competitive

Kansas High School Athletic Association recognized the total girls' sports' program as being competitive this year. Under the guidance of Sandra Homier, the girls launched into a more intensive athletic program.

The tennis team participated in three matches. Two were with Medicine Lodge, one here and one there. The other meet was an invitational tournament at Alva.

The volleyball team played power volleyball. They met Nashville-Zenda twice and Sharon twice. Each time the girls played an A- and B-team game. The season ended with the tournament at Udall. Kiowa lost in the first round to Udall who went on to win the tournament.

The basketball team worked very hard to meet the standards set. The girls looked sharp in new black and gold uniforms with black and gold leggings. The team faced Hardtner (twice), Sharon (twice), Medicine Lodge B-team, Stafford, Pratt, Caldwell, Argonia, and Nashville-Zenda (regionals at Skyline).

The girls' track team were able to compete in only one track meet, due to the rainy weather. They placed fifth in the MAL track meet. From this track meet, Mary Vogel and Dee Debano qualified for regionals. Mary placed third in the 75-yard dash at the regionals which qualified her for the state track meet.

TOP TO BOTTOM: Pauline Ruiz blocks a layup of a Sharon player. After a free shot, Kim Forester moves in to tie the ball for a jump shot. Basketball players huddle for last minute instructions from their coach. Pauline Ruiz sets up the ball for a spiker.

Spotlight focuses on new school

Much of the school board's time was occupied with decisions concerning the new high school. There were many details about the erection of the building that were planned with the architect. After much discussion, the name of the school was changed to South Barber High School at Kiowa. However, the Chieftain mascot and the school colors were retained.

Other matters for the school board and administration's attention were the dress code, the site for the prom, and credits required for graduation.

The work of the school and administration was greatly aided by the help of the noncertified personnel. The three secretaries exemplified dedication and loyalty in their work. The cooks spent much time in preparing tasty meals for the students and faculty. Bus drivers and custodians certainly did not work from "8 to 5"; their work began before daylight and many times continued long after dark.

Teaching requires human skills

The teacher, at the time he becomes employed, already possesses the basic skills in his teaching field. He has completed at least four years of training to become proficient in his area. But teaching requires more than that; it becomes necessary to understand and work with human beings. The teacher must recognize individual differences and then strive toward helping each person to develop himself to reach his potential.

The teacher must be willing to give of himself entirely. Many times giving involves extra time in helping a student with his class work or in listening to his problem; this may occur before school, after school, or late at night. Sometimes, it involves refraining from what he wishes to say after a student has tried his patience. It may require a smile instead of a frown. Giving can require time in working with extracurricular activities or in riding hours on an activity bus after a full day of school.

All of this, though, is worth it when the teacher watches HIS students mature into healthy, happy, well-adjusted citizens.

Seniors recall memorable year

The class of '73 enjoyed a very exciting year. Without a doubt, the most thrilling event was graduation, when the class took that last excited step to receive their diplomas. But the most profitable part was the creating of friendships, sharing of ideas, and the maturing as individuals. Whatever the future routes, the memories and lasting friendships of high school days will never be forgotten.

The class officers were Bill Selsor, president; Rick Sears, vice-president; Laurie Terwort, secretary; Teresa Terhune, treasurer; and Mary Vogel, STUCO representative.

GOOD-BYE TO KIOWA HIGH

by
Robert Ricke

Well, old friend
The time has come
For us to say good-bye.
But before we go,
We'd like to say
We're proud of Kiowa High.

We've studied hard
Within your rooms,
We've crowded through your halls.
We complained about
The heat, the cold,
The cracks within your walls.

Dot Schupbach, Salutatorian and Kay Stevens, Valedictorian.

But being a Chieftain
Was worth it all.
The name alone meant pride.
And what a thrill it was
At all our games,
To be cheering for our side.

So good-bye, friend,
And thank you,
For all the things you've done.
For all the years
You faithfully gave.
And for the diploma I have won.

You know, old friend,
I was thinking
Of that day back in the past.
In February,
Nineteen Seventeen,
When you held your first class.

How proud and strong
You must have looked,
Standing there so tall.
How big and important
You must have felt,
As students walked down your halls.

But yesterday's gone
Today is here.
The future is ahead.
And from our class
Of Seventy-three,
Great things are to be done and said.

So thanks, old friend,
For those four years.
And for challenges each day
For all the things
You've done for us
To help us pave the way.

Well, old friend,
I guess you know
They've built a new high school in town.
And just as soon
As the kids move in,
They'll probably tear you down.

They'll strip you down
Of desks and chairs,
And anything else they can use.
And soon there will be
Just a memory,
But no physical trace of you.

Well, old friend
I think I've said
All that one could say.
So, thank you,
For the things you've done
During our brief stay.

And now as we
Prepare to leave,
We've all come to agree
The finest years
You've had to give,
Were to the class of '73.

Juniors highlight year with prom

The Juniors started a fantastic year by sponsoring a magazine sale. The money they raised from this and their class dues went to cover the expenses of a junior-senior banquet and prom, which was held at the VIP Club in Alva, Oklahoma, on April 27.

This year the junior class officers were Kirk Lieurance, president; Jo Schrock, vice-president; Karen Kimmell, secretary; Diane Hillman, treasurer; and Ron Hill, STUCO representative.

Sophomores order class rings

The busy sophomore class included 19 boys and 13 girls. Their most exciting moment was the selection of class rings in May.

The 1972-73 sophomore class officers were Barbara Gillig, president; Delbert Abbott, vice-president; Pam Swafford, secretary; Kent Harbaugh, treasurer; and Mary Hyde, STUCO representative.

Freshmen elect class officers

The freshmen leaders elected were Scott Mathews, president; John Forester, vice-president; Annette Conrad, secretary-treasurer; and Becky Hedges, STUCO representative.

The happiest times for the class were when the freshmen boys were playing basketball. The team finished the season with a 12-2 record and won second in the MAL tournament.

William Joseph "Joe" Ballard November 8, 1951 — October 26, 1972

Graduating from Kiowa High School in 1969, Joe Ballard is remembered by his friends and classmates as ornery, full of fun, and a good kid. He was active in all phases of the KHS athletic program. He wanted to be a coach and was approaching that goal when he was stricken with cancer. Joe found the "time clock" was running out for him, so he told others, "Live the best you can because you don't know how many seconds are left on the clock or if you'll be granted an overtime."

According to Joe's wishes, a scholarship fund was established for deserving athletes. Graduating senior Ernest Jahay was this year's recipient of the Joe Ballard Football Player Award, which was presented at the Awards Assembly by Joe's father, Bill Ballard.

Opal Bessie Jones July 11, 1906 — March 22, 1973

Opal Jones was a teacher. She had taught in the Kiowa schools for 23 years before her retirement in 1971. A large part of that time was spent with kindergarten children whom she dearly loved. "Her children" went with her, in her thoughts, everywhere. "Wouldn't 'MY CHILDREN' love to see this?" so often she would say. Also, she believed her Creator created for beauty. She said, "I wanted them to see beauty even in a blade of grass. I wanted them to love each bird, each budding tree, each flower, leaf and stem."

Opal Jones died in an automobile accident north of Alva on March 22, 1973.

Teachers develop curriculum guides

Teachers in grades K-8 spent many hours this year in studying every area of learning for students. Curriculum guides were planned by each instructor. As a result, the guides will help the teachers to recognize the time each skill should be taught. Also, duplication and repetition of materials at various levels will be avoided.

An awareness that learning can occur in places other than the classroom was demonstrated by the various field trips taken throughout the year. Different classes visited the planetarium at Hutchinson, the Halstead health museum, a dairy farm at Sharon, the museum at Alva, a turkey farm at Cherokee, and the hatchery, railroad station, and sale barn at Kiowa.

Learning also occurred when teachers directed students in performing operettas, plays, and concerts. Some classes prepared different foods and meals and invited their parents as guests.

In the sports area, Coaches Walden and Whitehill scheduled a grade school track meet and basketball tournament for the first time.

TOP TO BOTTOM: Mr. Thompson directs the junior high school band at basketball homecoming festivities. Mrs. Keast helps a parent with Mexican food at the fiesta. Mrs. Walden and Mrs. Parkhurst become Indians at their classes' Thanksgiving Day meal. As a hobo, Miss Viets leads her class in the Halloween parade. Mr. and Mrs. Haywood and Mr. and Mrs. Barstow enjoy the tostadas at the fiesta.

BANK OF KIOWA

Established 1884

Member FDIC

When planning your future, it's nice to know there's willing service for your financial needs. Since 1884, the Bank of Kiowa has been trying hard to be "the bank of Kiowa".

Regardless where the future may lead you; into agri-business, commercial business, or a professional field; bank services in the form of checking accounts, loans, or other financial counseling can help make that future secure.

We at the Bank of Kiowa hope to be a part of that prosperous future you're planning.

Capital $100,000.00
